MSc ENERGY ECONOMICS

The MSc in Energy Economics is a 1-year degree programme aimed at providing technical training required for a career as a professional energy economist working for institutions like, the Ghana Energy Commission, PURC, Petroleum Commission, BOST, National Petroleum Authority, Oil and Gas Industries, Electricity Company of Ghana, Volta River Authority, and Banks. It has been designed in close consultation with experts from diverse fields of finance and economics and the energy industry.

There is option for weekend, evening or modular (2 years).

Students will take the following courses:

- Fundamentals of Economics (3 credits)
- Microeconomic Theory and Policy (3 credits)
- Macroeconomics Theory and Policy (3 credits)
- Econometrics I (3 credits)
- Econometrics II (3 credits)
- Quantitative Economics (3 credits)
- Energy Economics (3 credits)
- Energy Regulation and Policy (3 credits)
- Energy Finance and Risk management (3 credits)
- Energy Markets (3 credits)
- MSc Thesis (6 credits)
- Spoken French (0 Credit)

Entry Requirements

An applicant to the Master of Science in Energy Economics programme is required to meet the following entry level requirements:

- Earned a Bachelor's degree in economics or the equivalent from a recognized university or institution
- Graduated with a minimum of 2nd Class Lower Division.
- Applicants with degree classifications lower than 3rd Class with quantitative background must pass an entrance examination in addition to an interview.

Department Contact

Ph: 0302 401681-3 or 0246264300

Email: gimpacon@gimpa.edu.gh